BUILDING UP STRENGTH

After a severe illness, or sometimes without that misfortune, many people do not gain strength as they should. Often this is because the food taken is not rich and does not go to the making of rich blood.

Nature should then be aided. It will usually be the case that in the mucous membranes that line most of the body there will be areas of stagnation, with the blood engorged instead of circulating. When there are in the stomach or bowels the food ferments when it might be making strength.

Peruna dispels stagnation in these membranes, invigorates the digestion, tones up the bodily functions, overcomes all catarrhal conditions and starts the organs to working properly. After illness it is a good tonic, used by all with safety.

Liquid or tablet form—each with the same principle—whichever is more convenient, or may be used together.

Manilla is the ideal laxative. It cleans the waste from the system, tones up the liver and helps you overcome the constipation habit.

Safe, pleasant, effective. Liquid or tablet form.

DEACON CHARGED WITH BREAKING VOW 100 TIMES

NAMES PRIVATE SECRETARY AS CORRESPONDENT IN DIVORCE SUIT

New York, Aug. 5.—A lively verbal set-to took place before Supreme Court Justice Edward R. Finch today, between attorneys for Deacon Ellis B. Guild of the Mount Morris Baptist Church, and for his wife, Mrs. Sarah T. Guild.

Mrs. Guild several weeks ago started the congregation of the church by bringing suit for an absolute divorce against her venerable husband, naming Mrs. Sarah T. Hastings, his private secretary, and a member of the church's Sunday school class, as co-respondent.

Today's warfare of legal language was precipitated by Mrs. Guild's motion to have stricken from her husband's answer to her complaint the declaration that her charges against Deacon Guild and Mrs. Hastings were fantasies produced by "a nervous ailment to which she is subject."

Mrs. Guild objected strenuously to having this ailment thrust upon her when, she says, she is not at all so afflicted. She objected even more vigorously to the broad intimation that she imagined the things she says about her white-haired and silvery-bearded husband.

Deacon Guild's counsel retorted with a demand that the bill of particulars filed by Mrs. Guild's lawyer be made more specific.

The document, declared the lawyers, mentioned only ninety-three definite dates, which are augmented to more than 100 as general allegations.

The deacon wishes the general allegations converted into specific statements.

Judge Finch grew weary of the wrangling of the lawyers and adjourned the argument until tomorrow afternoon, advising the counsel meantime to try to get together and arrange some common ground upon which they could meet.

Deacon Guild, in addition to being a prominent member of Mount Morris Baptist church, is a noted lecturer on Christian philosophy. It was to discuss with his secretary and co-worker various points in some of his lectures, he explained, that he dropped in at Mrs. Hastings' apartment on several occasions. The venerable churchman denied all of his wife's charges.

ALLIES WORRY LITTLE OVER BIG LIFE LOSS

them, found on different prisoners, sent by German companies in the line to their different headquarters in rear; begging for reinforcements. Company reduced to nine men and one officer; Battalion reduced to twenty men and three officers, and that sort of thing. That's worth paying for, you know, and what's more, it can't possibly be got without paying.

The whole thing is very different from Louis; I know that. We're getting an infinitely better run for our money.

"We are gaining in ground; but that's a small thing to the enormous gain in man-power and morale. You take it from me, our new armies can stand a lot of this; a dented right more of it than Germany could possibly stand. Our claps are in better heart today than they've ever been since 1914.

"In his early days it was a case of pitting flesh and blood against metal. The Germans had the overwhelming advantage of us at every turn, and in every mortal way; except in the spirit of his men. He never could beat us at that. But in numbers in preparation, and above all in guns and munitions, it was heads you win and tails I lose. But the boot's on the other leg now, and will be still more on the other leg when we've got a few more German positions. For, in addition to everything else, mind, they had us beaten out of sight in the matter of relative positions, fields of fire, cover from fire, field of view, and all that.

Murdered by Air Blown Into Arteries

ELIZABETH RATCLIFFE INTERNATIONAL FILM SERVICE

Elizabeth Ratcliffe, aged seventeen, of Olney, Ill., the police of that town believe, was murdered by the blowing of air into her arteries. Should the belief be proved the case will become one of the strangest of murders. The girl, who was in trouble, had been about with several young men. One of them is now charged with her murder.

But the greatest difference is in the matter of guns and ammunition.

"Why, it wouldn't worry me much if our casualties were twice as heavy as they are; no, nor three or four times."

"Nor me. Not a bit," agreed the Adjutant. "We all know there must be big fighting and lots of it, to finish this war; and there can't be big fighting without proportionately big casualties. On the basis on which we're fighting just now, I wouldn't care if our casualties were ten times as numerous; and do you know why? Because, on the present relation of gains to losses, of what we sell to what we're getting for it; if our casualties were ten times what they are, the war would be over before the summer is over, and Germany would be down and out."

"And I'll tell you another thing," said the other officer. "A rare lot of these present casualties will be fighting fit again within a month from the time of landing; and you watch their smoke when they get out again."

COMMUNITY MUSIC IN KANSAS RURAL DISTRICTS

Manhattan, Kan., Aug. 5.—A campaign has been started by Arthur E. Westbrook, professor of music at the Kansas State Agricultural College, to have community music in as many rural communities in the state as possible. It is suggested that the districts start work early this fall with a definite program for weekly meetings in which every person in the community can take part. The plan outlined is to learn the old familiar songs, and the national hymns and then lead up to better music.

"Community music is one of the best ways to get people together and have a harmonious community that I know of," said Professor Westbrook.

Taking Big Chances.

It is a common risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy; as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and even one should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

MEN WHO STOLE COIN BAGS AT DETROIT ESCAPE

LEWIS BROTHERS OF WICHITA, IN GANG; SECURED MORE THAN $30,000

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 5.—Five automobile bandits who held up the postmaster and armed guards of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, and made away with between $22,000 and $24,000 after shooting and slightly injuring one man, have eluded pursuit. Eleven machines filled with of fleers are scouring the country in every direction after a fruitless north-westerly chase of 25 miles.

That three of the bandits who held up and robbed the Burroughs Adding Machine company pay car at Detroit were the Lewis brothers, formerly residents of Wichita, believe a Wichita detective.

The Lewis brothers have been fugitives since they are reported to have killed two police officers in St. Louis in April. The Lewis family resided in Wichita until two or three years ago. The four Lewis brothers spent a few weeks here last fall.

In April the four brothers were riding along a St. Louis street in a stolen motor car when a motorist stopped them. While the officer was calling in from a car box in police headquarters one of the brothers shot him dead. They then re-entered the car and drove to a garage. A patrolman followed them into the garage and they killed him, after which they threw his body into the car and handed it to a garage.

One of the brothers was captured and is in jail at St. Louis. St. Louis officers have been making a country-wide search for him. It was believed that the Lewis brothers were at the Anglin oil fields a few weeks ago and a search was made for them there.

The Wichita detective has been keeping track of their movements and he knew several days ago that they were in the vicinity of Detroit. Additional facts obtained from Detroit show the amount obtained by the bandits, at first placed as high as $50,000 to have been between $25,000 and $31,000. The car held up carried sum said to have been $30,000. A car following carried $25,000 was not halted.

SCRUB REGIONS AND SCRUB RAILROADS

Missouri finally woke up to discover that a majority of the railroads entering St. Louis are in the hands of receivers, and the 1908-9 season commission raised rates from 2 to 21-2 and a cents per mile and freight rates by some 5 to 7 per cent. The idea is to get the roads going again. With good regulation this sort of action is safe and it is absolutely necessary.

But it is not enough for a railroad to be merely solvent. It must be strong enough to be looking and planning ahead, building for the larger industrial conditions that are to come. This country is going to have some 150,000,000 people within our life time. It could hold twice as many. The grouping of this population is going to depend very largely upon transportation—people will farm, manufacture, trade, and live where they are best served in ease of coming and going both for themselves and for their goods. Except for a few childworkers it has always been so.

The regions that have scrub railroads will remain themselves backward and undeveloped. It is very significant that while statisticians are predicting 1,000,000 population for New York City, by 1950 or so, the Lackawanna railroad has spent $21,000,000 on colossal cut-offs which save heavy grades and fourteen miles on the way of the anthracite coal fields and the Great Lakes. Bigger cities and more business must go together.

If St. Louis is to be what its patriots dream, the railroads of the Missouri region must do more than keep out of bankruptcy.—Collier's Weekly.

BODY OF UNKNOWN MAN FOUND FLOATING

Atchison, Aug. 5.—The body of an unidentified man, believed to be Fred Meyer, of St. Joseph, was found floating in the Missouri river three miles below Atchison this afternoon. In the clothing was found a water-tight card from C. J. Graves, an officer of Ponchartraine, La. No. 10. The address was so badly faded it could be deciphered only in part but apparently was to Frederick Meyer, 7 Main street, Atty. The postmark was plainly that of the St. Joseph postoffice, but the street number and the name Frederick are as plain as day to only a guess.

COTTON PRICE REACHES 14 CENTS AT HOUSTON

Houston, Tex., Aug. 5.—Four-cent cotton is now a reality. The dream of the farmers of Texas has come true. The 14-cent market was reached and passed when the official quotations of the Houston Cotton exchange placed middling cotton at 14.10, an advance of 20 points over the previous day's record and a gain of 45 points for two days.

The price reached is the highest paid in August for spot cotton since 1910, when spots sold at 14.28. The previous high record was in 1905, the famous Rally year.
